- Confidentiality and Code of Conduct

- Professional Behavior: Interns are expected to maintain professionalism, discipline, and clear communication while working with mentors, team members, and clients.
- Ownership of Work: All source code, web applications, software modules, APIs, databases, technical documents, project assets, and related deliverables developed during the internship shall remain the exclusive intellectual property of Red Hawk Consultancy. Interns are not permitted to share, publish, or reuse any company-owned work without prior written approval.
- Confidentiality Clause: All information related to company projects, client data, source code, credentials, databases, technical documentation, business strategies, and internal processes must be treated as strictly confidential. Sharing or disclosing such information to any third party without written permission is strictly prohibited.
- Any violation may result in immediate termination of the internship and legal action as per company policy and applicable Indian laws.

Red Hawk Consultancy

- Policies & Terms

- Development & System Access: All source code, repositories, databases, project files, and development resources must be managed using official company tools and accounts. Use of personal or unauthorized platforms for company projects is strictly prohibited.
- Company Compliance: Interns must follow all company guidelines, coding standards, project deadlines, and reporting protocols. Non-compliance may affect evaluation and certification.
- Internship Nature: This internship is focused on training and practical full stack development experience and does not guarantee permanent employment. However, high-performing candidates may be considered for future opportunities.
- Stipend: No stipend will be provided for the first two months. After this period, a stipend may be offered based on performance, project contribution, technical skills, and overall productivity. There is no guaranteed stipend.
- Non-Compliance: Any misconduct, policy violation, security breach, unauthorized access, or breach of confidentiality will result in termination of the internship and may lead to legal consequences.
